Sub: Regarding Extension of Railnet in various Railway Undertakings.

Board, vide its policy No. RB Tele 3/2011 had extended the use of the Railways wide area network-Railnet to its PSUs/Authorities/Subsidiaries. Further, vide policy No. RB Tele 4/2011 Board has issued instruction that on Indian Railways, all official e-mails must be sent and received through official e-mail IDs provided in railnet.gov.in domain. PSUs/Authorities/Subsidiaries under Ministry of Railways were advised to use their own mail server being fully controlled by them and hosted in India.

2. Recognizing that e-mails are fast evolving into a better and reliable mode of communication, it has been decided to extend the facilities of Indian Railways' e-mail system to the PSU's/Authorities/Subsidiaries under Ministry of Railways. These may now have e-mail account in the railnet.gov.in domain.

3. Director (Telecom), Ministry of Railways may be contacted for creation of domains and admin account for using the e-mail system. The respective PSU's /Authority/Subsidiary will be able to create and delete e-mail accounts using the admin account. The mail system is available on Railnet as well as Internet via the URL <http://rmail.railnet.gov.in/>.

4. PUS's/Authorities/Subsidiaries under Ministry of Railways may use this facility for official communication.

5. Please acknowledge receipt.
